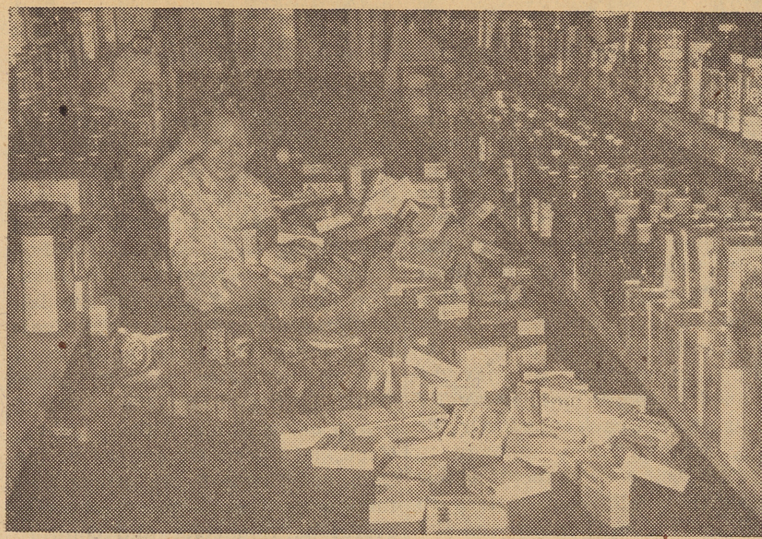
A GROWING NEWSPAPER — A GROWING COMMUNITY

Vol. 63, No. 34 CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA 10c per copy Thursday, September 8, 1955



PACKAGED Breakfast foods fell on the floor when an earthquake shook Campbell at 7:02 Sunday evening, although the center of the quake seems to have been at San Jose. Emil Rodolfa, 2½ year old grandson of Sam Cava is shown here looking for his favorite brand which fell from the shelves at J&A Market on Campbell avenue. About six bottles of bonded stuff fell and broke on the floor at Parker House Liquor Store across the street, and a small crack appeared in one wall of the brick building of Guy Farley's insurance office. Tony Oreglia of Double AA Market reported a few packages had fallen from his shelves as also did Vince Vellelunga owner of Maderis Food Market.

$100,000 BOND ELECTION CALLED BY CITY COUNCIL

At an adjourned meeting Tuesday evening, the city council introduced for first reading an ordinance calling a Special Municipal Bond Election for Tuesday, October 18 on three measures to be voted on separately to provide a city hall, a fire station and a corporation yard. The city hall measure calls for bonding to extent of $55,000 to acquire property on which to construct and remodel a City Hall in which would be provided administration offices, fixtures and equipment.

The Fire House measure calls for $35,000 in bonds to acquire a site on which to construct and equip a Fire House, while the Corporation Yard measure calls for bonds in the amount of $10,000 to acquire a site on which to construct facilities including paving and rights-of-way for a corporation yard in which to store, service and repair road and other equipment.

Congregational Church of Campbell is understood to have a conditional sales agreement with the City for the property of the present church building and site at 49 North Central avenue for $35,000 to be used for the city hall, the $20,000 additional bond money to be used for alterations and equipment.

The fire station site, for the west section is recommended by Board of Underwriters as new subdivisions are completed, which facility would probably lower insurance rates.

The corporation yard is needed for road equipment.

Election polls are to be open from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m.

Voting places and election officers will be:

Precinct A—Campbell High School; Hazel Gilliam, Doris Flewelling, Margaret Richardson and Ida M. Page.

Precinct B—Campbell Grammar School; Maxine Whitton, Evelyn Buck, Anna Bachman and Elena Robinson.

Precinct C—Fire House; Velma Olds, Elizabeth Bradley, Winnie Grizzle and Josephine Souto.

Precinct D—Campbell Baptist Church; Pearl Jetton, Eugenia Smith, Elizabeth Bihn and Gertrude Jones.

Mayor Richard Morton said he and other Councilmen are to be available to talk at scheduled meetings on needs for approving the bonds.

The committee will have no administrative or supervisory responsibility for police officer training program in the local school district; but act in an advisory capacity only.

Crash Takes Life Of Campbell Man

Services were held Wednesday afternoon in Golden Gate Memorial Chapel at Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno for P. F. C. He was the son of Bertram Countryman of San Jose and Mrs. Leona Scott of San Jose-Los Gatos Road, Campbell, and brother of Donald L. Countryman, also of Campbell.

Young Countryman and two women were killed when their car skidded off the Mount Hamilton Road at 2 a. m. Sunday morning and plunged into a grove of trees at the bottom of a 400 foot canyon.

Reported in "satisfactory" condition at San Jose Hospital is Bert Countryman, young Countryman's father, who is the only survivor of the accident.

WATER FOR VALLEY--GUBSER

PACHECO CANAL MAY BE SOURCE OF VALLEY SUPPLY

Congressman Charles Gubser told an audience in Campbell last night that President Eisenhower is not in any way against reclamation projects, but that he wants them set up so that they will pay their own way. He said that through cooperation of Santa Clara County legislators, Governor Knight and U. S. Senator Knowland, a survey is to be continued on the Feather River project that was started in 1949 with the foresight of the then Rep. Jack Anderson of the Eighth Congressional District, that San Benito and Santa Clara Counties will derive some of the water from that source in the Central Valley system.

The meeting, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sanders on Budd avenue, was also addressed by Assemblyman Bruce Allen of San Jose, speaking on water problems on the state level, who said that the state is going to need 11-million acre feet more of water per year to keep up with the influx of new people.

Gubser said the 84th Congress had a good record because of the Eisenhower leadership and in spite of the fact that chairmanships of all important committees were held by Democrats. On water development, he said Trinity project is for power development and will be an integral part of the great valley system.

Gubser pointed out that the San Luis Dam, when built, will store one million acre feet of delta water. It will be constructed so that its size can be increased at a later date and store an additional million feet.

When that is accomplished it may be possible for part of the water to be diverted to this county, Gubser said.

Action to include the San Luis project in the Bureau of Reclamation's Central Valley Project is under way in Congress, Gubser pointed out, and it may be approved during the next session.

When completed, the San Luis Reservoir will straddle the present Pacheco Pass highway, which will have to be rerouted. Pumps will be installed 12 miles west of Los Banos to push the water from the Delta-Mendota 200 feet over Pacheco Pass to the reservoir.

A canal about 104 miles long then would carry water from the reservoir south to Kettleman City.

The Feather River Project probably will not be completed in time to help Santa Clara County, Gubser said. That is why he has worked so hard on the possibility of getting water from the San Luis project, he explained.

Gubser has urged that the Bureau of Reclamation be granted funds to survey the possibilities of importing Delta water to Santa Clara, San Benito and Alameda counties either directly or from the San Luis Reservoir.

Allen said there is a fight on in the legislature to merge the several water agencies. He told of tideland monies reserved at Long Beach which he contended belonged to the state and which can best be used for water development.

Col. Richard Mertens, secretary of the County Central Committee, said that in 1954 of the 78,000 registered Republicans in Santa Clara County, 16,374 failed to vote and have been dropped from the rolls, but added that 19,000 Democrats also failed to vote and were dropped.

Mrs. H. Combs, president of the Republican Women's group, presided at the meeting.

LOCAL MAN AIDS IN COMBATTING DANGEROUS FIRE

The heat was really on for Mr. Charles Henizer of 601 Emory Ave. Campbell, and his companions on a camping trip in Trinity County. They were camping in the area of Minersville when a forest fire became dangerous; so the fire marshall indulged in the time-honored custom of drafting all available help to aid in combatting the flames.

Henizer and friends aided in clearing fire breaks for two days before they were able to return, stretching a Labor Day trip over to Wednesday. The outbreak was brought under control only after burning over 5,000 acres of forest land.

CAMPBELL SWIMMING TEAM ENDS '55 SEASON IN SIZZLING HEAT

For the final meet of the year held at Sacramento on Saturday in the Junior Olympics the Campbell swim team did very well in spite of the 112 degree temperature.

The 14-year old medley relay team of Bill Duncan, Mike Scroggins, Steve Skold and Dave Andre all bettered their previous times and broke the national age group and Jr. Olympic records by doing a 2:07.1 for 200 years. The Berkeley City Club however did even better so Campbell had to be content with a second.

The 16-yr. old medley team of Pat Franco, Jim Mitchell, John Duncan and John Davenport also came in second.

The 12-yr. old freestyle relay composed of Jim Davenport, Mel Duffy, Walter Guilbert, and Steve Barnett came in fourth.

Mike Scroggins took a fourth in the 100 yd. breast and fourth in the 100 butterfly.

Bill Duncan took 4th in the 100 yd. free and 5th in the 100 yd. backstroke.

Dave Andre took 3rd in the 200 yd. free and 5th in the 100 yd. freestyle.

John Duncan was the iron man of the team, placing in all his six events. John was 3rd in 100 yd. free (16 yrs.), 4th in 200 yd. free (16yrs.), 2nd in the relay, 5th in open 100 yds. free, 6th in open 200 yds. free, and 6th in open 440 yds. free.

John Davenport took 6th in the open 100 yds. free and 2nd in the relay.

Jim Mitchell took 3rd in the 15-16 yr. 100 yd. back, 6th in the open back, and 2nd in the relay.

Steve Skold broke the national, age group and Jr. Olympic record in the heats by making his best time of date of 1:03.7 in the 100 yd. butterfly—only to lose his record to the Berkeley swim club in the finals.

Steve wound up his season by winning the 14 yd. old 200 yd. free by never having lost a single race in this event in High School competition in the SCVAL or in the age group in AAU. His only loss this year was in the N. C. S. finals to George Harrison.

Belser To Talk At Kiwanis Meet

Birge Clark, a Palo Alto architect who designed the new Camden High School, was featured speaker at the Campbell Kiwanis Club meeting Tuesday, showing color films taken of his recent trip through Denmark, Sweden and Norway. He referred to the Danes as being a happy, peaceful race.

Laurance Hill was program chairman.

President Ethan Lanphear appointed Fred Jones, Carl Feild and Howard Atkinson as a nominating committee, and named Henry Jewell, Fred Jones and Clarence Nelson on arrangements committee for the 20th Annual barbecue at the Raymond Bishop place September 20th.

Karl Belser, county Planning Commission head is to be the speaker at the program here next Tuesday.

Over $500 Raise For Flood Relief

The drive in Campbell for emergency funds for flood disaster relief in northeastern states had passed $500 yesterday it was announced by Raymond Bishop, director. The money is to be sent from Campbell as emergency Red Cross contributions, according to Laurance Hill, chapter chairman.

Bishop said money put in cans distributed about the shops in Campbell last week may run the total to near $600. Information from national Red Cross just received is that the disaster fund had passed the ten million dollars needed.

"Once again the people of Campbell have shown their prompt generosity in meeting the emergency needs of those who have been affected by disaster", Hill said.

"The thanks of the Red Cross and my personal appreciation go to those who have contributed. Their funds have been quickly forwarded to the disaster scene. They can be sure this money will be immediately put to good use in assisting individuals and families to rebuild that which was so suddenly destroyed."

Two Injured In Crash Last Night

Two people were injured last night as a northbound station wagon was sideswiped and forced against a telephone pole on Winchester Road about 500 feet south of the Campbell Lumber Company. Mrs. Victoria Brands of 860 Hamilton Way, San Jose, was removed to a San Jose hospital with cuts, bruises and a fractured leg, while her husband sustained cuts and bruises insufficient to be hospitalized.

Belser Will Talk At Saratoga Meet

Karl Belser, planning director for Santa Clara County, is to speak at a meeting of the Saratoga Chamber of Commerce on Monday evening in Richard's Hall at Saratoga Federated Church.

Belser's talk will be concerned with the study of re-zoning.

Planners Are Told

KEESLING TO FIGHT POWER SITE PLAN ON HAMILTON AVE.

The Campbell Planning Commission in session Thursday evening made no change in the previous recommendation to the City Council that the lands on Harrison Street recently purchased by Rosilio Stroppa from Hunt Foods Co. be rezoned M-1 instead of R-2 so that applicant can operate his Tile plant there. Site was formerly the engine room for Hunt Cannery, and planners indicated use would not be more severe than a boiler room, and the lands across the street are zoned M-1.

Council had sent a resolution to planners that it did not concur with Planner's recommendation as it would be conducive to spot zoning and would not be in accordance with the master plan. Nestor Barrett, planning consultant said Thursday that if the governing board does not concur they have no authority to reject application unless referred back to planners for further review. No further hearing is necessary. Planners have 40 days in which to change first recommendation or hold to first rule, the Council then can make final decision.

Planners also rejected without prejudice the preliminary map of Hensley subdivision off north side of Rincon avenue, west of Winchester Road, proposing that a new map be submitted which will meet approval of city engineer in regard to storm water disposal.

A letter to Noel Atkinson was authorized that would provide adequate parking for the private swim pool patrons at 220 N. San Jose-Los Gatos Road after Hamilton Square Shopping Center is completed in May, 1956.

Architectural approval was given three new stores that will form an "L" when added to Lee Bros. Market building now under construction at Latimer and Winchester Road, major unit of the Winchester Shopping Center.

Reynolds Keesling inquired of planners what he could do to prevent PG&E Company from using a portion of 22 acres of his land on the south side of Hamilton avenue between the Railroad tracks and Los Gatos Creek for a power station, acquisition indicated by condemnation. Land is zoned M-1. Planners indicated they could not designate where power units could be located on the site. Keesling said he would appeal to State Utilities Commission.

Camp and Sondero will be asked by Planners to file a tentative map relinquishing holding pond on Sunberry Acres unit and substitute horizontal dry wells as approved by city engineer until such time as storm sewers may be installed.

TWO ANNEX MAPS FROM CAMPBELL WIN APPROVAL

Two annex maps filed by Campbell were approved Tuesday by the County Boundaries commission along with a 160 acre annex in Kennedy Road area by Los Gatos. The commission also approved seven maps for San Jose identified as Monterey Park 7, Hyde Park 4, Casey 1A, Eastgate 7, Bollinger 2 and Carleton 2 and 3. Commission balked at giving approval to the Johnson 1 annex because it includes the County's Westside Corporation Yard on Doyle Road.

A tralier fire at 140 Dillon Avenue brought seventeen firemen and two trucks in answer to a call at 5:55 a. m. The trailer was occupied by Dorothy Kincaide and owned by R. J. Leach.

CITY FATHERS GET TOGETHER

Municipal government is close to most people of California, for it deals with the very essentials of civic, social and economic welfare. The city provides police and fire protection, sewage and garbage disposal, street maintenance, lighting, traffic control and a hundred more details of civic housekeeping.

To do these day-to-day chores, some men give up hours of their time, often without remuneration to be good public servants. Other men and women take time out to serve as elected officials to direct municipal government according to the will of the people.

The League of California Cities, comprising both career and elected executives and officials of our State's many municipalities, will hold its annual convention next week in San Francisco. Mayors, managers, chiefs, department heads, superintendents and other municipal officers from all parts of California will exchange experiences, describe new approaches to a problem and tell of new development plans, all in the interests of better municipal government.

Mayor Richard Morton of Campbell is President of the Peninsula Chapter, League of California Cities and from all reports has given an excellent administration with cities of the fastest developing area of the state.

California has a host of municipal problems, as everyone knows. Our mushrooming population has imposed terrific burdens on municipal governments.

FACING AN EMERGENCY

School buses will roll again Monday as classrooms in the Campbell, Cambrian and Moreland districts open again for the first time since June. There are to be 5407 enrolled in Campbell district, according to the annual survey conducted by principals of the ten schools. This will be 757 more than any previous peak enrollment.

Cambrian district schools will open with 1600 children, which is an increase of 166 over any previous enrollment, while Moreland is expecting 1300 enrollment which is an increase of 250.

Campbell High School opens on September 19 and an enrollment of 1700 is expected, with another 700 to enroll at the new Camden High School.

All of these enrollment estimates are conservative of what may eventuate. It is reported by some schools that many new students have appeared for registration giving Eastern and mid-West schools as the ones last attended, indicating that the Campbell area is getting its share of the hundreds of families moving into Santa Clara County each month.

Los Gatos and Saratoga elementary schools are delaying their openings for one week, just as did the Campbell High School, because of the prune harvest, which is two weeks late. The Federal Fair Labor Standards Act, recently enacted, will not allow a child of school age to work if in a district where school is in session. The penalty for violation would include a $10,000 fine and federal siezure of crops.

This is an awkward situation in districts where schools are in session in that much of the harvest is by itinerant families, and they will not likely stay on —nor will employers permit them to stay in face of this law.

Seems that there should be some relaxation of this law under such emergency circumstances.

WESTERN MINES

At Santa Cruz last week some fifty mining executives from the several western states met for a talk about the nation's dwindling mine industry. They will meet again in November at Sacramento with Governors of these states to prepare a united request to Congress to see what can be done about low tariffs on foreign metals and high production costs on domestic metals which are forcing many mining companies out of business.

This is not a healthy economic situation, and Congress should do something about it. All too often, American industries face foreign competition because of low tariff barriers and cheap foreign labor.

However, there are those who might say that it may be a blessing in disguise if this country bought the products of foreign mines and closed some of ours up until such time as the products were more badly needed, or methods were developed to extract the ores at less cost. American industry's products are not the result of labor's efforts alone—they are rather the end product of man plus machinery.

The only way that American labor can continue to hold its present high income standard in the face of low-pay foreign competition is to produce more goods per man-dollar in relation to not only national but international values. Tariffs are but a temporary solution.

WHO'S EXCITED OVER THIS?

We received a letter the other day from the American Society of Enologists about a big day they were about to have at Davis, and wanting us to write a nice piece about them, saying that if there is any question regarding the affair to write, wire or phone them, and they would be glad to tell us the answer so far as they could. Right off the bat the only question we could think of is what on earth is an enologist and what does he do—so we had to waste a few minutes thumbing through a couple of dictionaries until we found out that an enologist studies the integrating effect of yeas propagation.

THE INTENSITY OF earthquakes unless of a major proportion, used to be referred to by the way chandeliers swayed in the living room, how windows and dishes rattled, but there was a new version on Sunday given by those with whom we talked, mostly that the homes now have floor lamps, and weatherstripping keeps windows from rattling, so they determined intensity by the way TV aerials swayed back and forth like buggy whips . . . no damage in the Campbell area except a few bottles that fell from shelves to the floor at a liquor store and the wall on one side of Guy Farley's brick building that developed a small crack . . . San Jose seemed to get the brunt of the damage although even there it was not extensive . . . . the heat and the rainfall seem to vary within such a short area, the thermometer going to 109 at Los Gatos on Friday while in Campbell just five miles away it was 101, the rainfall in these two places also being in contrast the official reading in Campbell last season being 13.0 inches while at Los Gatos it was 23 inches.

COST OF LIVING
1955
AVERAGE PRICE OF A UNIT OF P.G. AND E. GAS AND ELECTRICITY

Meet the Scotts who set up housekeeping in Yuba City in 1935

20 YEARS AGO—when Sam and Dorothy Scott were married, they had just seven appliances: range, water heater, refrigerator, mixer, radio, electric iron, waffle iron.

TODAY—their comfortable home has 19 appliances: larger refrigerator, vacuum cleaner, range, mixer, 2 radios, sandwich grill, electric iron, toaster, waffle iron, electric clock, television, gas furnace, larger water heater, electric heating pad, electric razor, washer, coffee maker, record player. Also, their lighting has been improved.

Today they buy $12 worth of gas and electricity for $7

...because the average unit cost is about ⅓ less than it was in 1935

Most Californians, like the Scotts, have added gas and electric servants over the years. The average California home uses three times as much gas and electricity as twenty years ago. Naturally, your total bill may be higher, but the average price of a kilowatt hour of electricity and a cubic foot of gas is about one-third less than in 1935, thanks to mass production economies. As a result, the Scott's gas and electric bill in a recent month was $7.24. In 1935 the same amount would have cost over $12. And this same saving will most likely apply to your own bill. Can you think of any other prices that are lower today than 20 years ago? No wonder we say...

European Scene

EDITOR'S NOTE: Virginia Grattan, former San Jose State College and Campbell High School student, promised to send some articles to the Press about her impressions of Europe, as she was leaving here August 8. She then flew T. W. A. to New York and two days later was aboard the S. S. Saturnia, an Italian ship bound for Spain. Weather was clear and balmy in eight days to Gibraltar. ....

By Virginia Grattan

SHIPBOARD—

The passengers are mostly couples over forty returning to Spain or Italy to visit their friends or relatives there. A few notable exceptions were some young friends I had the pleasure of meeting: A German doctor who had done his internship in New York—on an exchange program; an Olympic hockey player from Italy studying law in the states; a girl from New York going to study in Italy; An Italian boy returning home for a visit before being inducted into the U. S. Army and a business major from Fordham University.

The two Californians I chanced to meet were a Spanish woman from San Francisco and a Geography M. A. from Cal going to Africa on a Ford grant.

Aug. 16—Lisbon

We spent five hours in Lisbon sight seeing while the ship docked there. Eight of my American-Italian and German friends and myself rented two taxis and toured the city most economically. The taxi, a European Nash, took us up to the top of the hill allowing us a magnificent view of the bay, the rolling hills and the city below. We noticed many new modern designed homes being built in the wealthy residential district. Young pines were being planted over the hills and bougainvillaea bloomed by many houses. Later in the heart of the city we visited the poorer districts where the streets were very narrow and the washing hung out of apartment windows. On the car radio we listened to a disc-jockey play records on the State owned radio station. He played very pleasant continental music and there were no commercials.

At eleven P. M. after our dinner we returned to the ship and left for Gibraltar.

August 17.—Gibraltar.

We arrived here about 8 P. M. The launch set us ashore where I exchanged money (for pounds) and got a taxi to the hotel. I have a nice room in Hotel Bristol for the night which with dinner, and breakfast, private bath, will cost me a little over four dollars. From my window I can see the lights of my ship in the harbor, and somewhere a band is playing Spanish flamenco music. This all seems like something from a movie rather than my being a long way from Campbell.

At eleven the band concluded with the British National Anthem and at the same time the launch returned to the ship in the bay, but I did not return with it tonight.

Next stop Granada, Spain.

Aug. 18 to 23

From Gibraltar it's necessary to cross the bay to the Spanish town of Algeciras to get transportation to Granada. From the bay the rocks of Gibraltar could be seen shrouded in mist, making it seem far more impressive than it does in actual daylight. On the ferry I met two U. S. Airmen on leave from Casablanca who told me I was the first American girl they had seen since they left the states months before. They were going home in a few more weeks and happily so.

In Algeciras I was told that there were no trains or busses to Granada this day. The only alternative was a taxi which left at 2:30 P. M. and took 7 passengers to Granada by 10:00 P. M.—or so the guide told me. It was not too expensive so I went with my six non-English speaking amigos to Granada—by taxi.

The guide had been wrong about the time of arrival, after many stops at refreshments and a stop for dinner and with one hour delay at an unknown town, we arrived in Granada at 2:30 A. M. It really had been a beautiful ride along the coast on a winding road, much like the Mt. Htmilton one, high above the water, but arriving in Granada in the middle of the night without reservations nearly caught me without a room for the night. After many phone calls my driver finally found a room for me in an eerie looking pension. If I had been less tired from my twelve hour ride, I might have thought of refusing. The pension looked brighter by daylight and at 55 pesetas per day for full room and board, I could hardly complain. My stay of two days cost me only $3.00.

The next day on my way to Alhambra I met a German couple and a young man with them who spoke English. They were visiting from Heidelberg. The young man was a Theology student and knew French, Latin and Greek. We joined another group of German visitors at the Alhambra and together hired a German speaking guide. The young man translated for me.

The Alhambra was built around the eleventh or twelfth centuries as a summer residence for the Moorish kings. It is a splendid building, very large, with many rooms and court yards, lily ponds and gardens. It also has a grand view of the hills and the city. Washington Irving stayed here in the nineteenth century and wrote his book "The Alhambra".

From Granada I managed to get the night train to Madrid, knowing it would be much cooler traveling at night. Luckily there was a British couple in my compartment to talk to, (not speaking the language is a tremendous isolating factor). They said they felt this year had been a lot more prosperous in England than previous ones so they were taking a long vacation. They even laughed as they told of their misadventures.

In the morning we could see the dry red soil of Spain from the train window. There were many vineyards and some olive trees growing. Later we passed sheep and horses grazing. Horses are used a great deal here for transportation. You can't drive down a street without passing many horse-drawn carts, and in the country you see horses and mules with packs and usually a rider or even two on their backs.

In Madrid I visited the Prado Museum which has a large display of Goya's, Greco's Valesqueg's and the Spanish masters, a magnificent collection of Ruben's Rembrandt's and Van Dyk's. One could spend weeks here. In the afternoon I walked to the Retero Park where boys were boating in the lake by the Alfonso XII memorial. Here I met three women whose husbands are Engineers in Spain. Two of the girls were from the states. One a San Franciscan said she had an uncle in San Jose who used to work at Food Machinery. All three agreed that living in Madrid was wonderful. On the way back to the hotel I visited a display of Spanish handmade goods, laces, fans, pottery, leather goods and the like sponsored by the Spanish Tourist office. It was very tempting to forget the budget.

Nora Lawson Is The Bride Of Ronald Schwab

Miss Nora Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olur Lawson of Campbell, became the bride of Ronald L. Schwab of Paseo Cerro in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Donald Jolly in Westhope United Presbyterian Church.

The bride was attired in a ballerina length net gown with fitted bodice. Her finger tip veil was attached to a halo of orange blossoms. She was given in marriage by her father; and her sister, Miss Sue Lawson, was maid of honor. Ross Bell of Moundsville, West Virginia, performed the duties of best man. James Anderson of Bessemere, Alabama, was usher.

The reception was held in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schwab, where guests enjoyed a three tiered cake.

Ronald is radioman in the Navy, attached to the USS Wasp, in San Francisco.

The decoration and refreshment committees were the following; Mesdames Gilbert Newcomb, Rudy Nelson, Roy Archibald, Phoebe Davis, Katherine Haliwell, Gene Waggoner, Calvin Barnett, Robert Dubois, Frank Greggs, Bruce Hillard and Mrs. Charles Deselle.

'The Moon Is Blue' Is Well Received By Packed House

A delightful evening's entertainment is being offered at the Los Gatos Summer Circle Theater in the Lyndon Hotel by the Actor's Reportory Company's current presentation of F. Hugh Herbert's sophisticated comedy hit, "The Moon Is Blue".

The play, directed by Paul L. Beaudry, opened last Friday evening to a packed house, and will be presented each Friday and Saturday evening in September and through October 1 in the unique "theater in the round" which gives the audience a sense of participating in the drama rather than being merely spectators from a distance.

The story is centered around an outspoken and frankly virtuous pretty young girl, Patty O'Neill, who meets a successful young architect, Donald Gresham, on the observation tower of the Empire State Building and naively accompanies him to his apartment where she meets an amiable middle-aged roue, David Slater, who complicates the whole plot.

The play is well done and keeps the audience amused and laughing continuously with its funny lines and amusing situations. Pat Branch, San Jose senior and drama major, is the feminine lead. Frank Hawks, who plays the young architect, has appeared in a number of Broadway shows and is ably supported by Lyland Mills as the middle-aged cynic. The part of Michael O'Neill, Patty's father, is played by Charles Barnes.

MR. and MRS. STEVE BO, 228 Arbor Avenue, Sunnyvale, will erect a 5-unit store building at Maude & Sunnyvale Avenue, Sunnyvale, at estimated cost of $140,000. Contractor, Leonard Semas, Santa Clara.

Proceeds from "Design At Home" will be used towards Architectural Student Scholarships at Stanford University.

Odd Fellows To Honor Saratoga Man At Banquet

A reception honoring the Grand Herald of the Grand Lodge of California, IOOF, Louis L. Gray of Saratoga, will be held in Richards Hall of the Saratoga Federated Church on Saturday evening, September 10th.

Grand Master Arthur C. Tibert of Glendale and Erma Fream, President of the Rebekah Assembly of San Fernando, will be present, as also will elective heads of all branches of the Order, which includes the Grand Encampment, Patriarchs Militant and their Ladies' Auxiliaires, the Grand Junior Lodge and Theta Rho Assembly of California.

Active in farternal work, Gray's memberships, other than the Saratoga Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges and the San Jose Encampment group, includes the F. & A. M. and Order of Eastern Star in Mountain View, Scottish Rite Bodies of San Jose and Islam Shrine of San Francisco, Los Gatos Order of Elks and San Jose Chapter of Foot-printers. He is former chief of police at Mountain View. As Chairman of the board of directors of the Saratoga Sanitary District, he represents his area at the semi-monthly meetings of Sanitation District 4, in Campbell.

While noble grand of the Mountain View lodge he started a Book of Friendship throughout the state which took 12 years to cover the 375 lodges and return to its home lodge. At one time a member of the Grand Lodge committee on legislature, he presently serves as secretary of his Saratoga lodge.

A dinner at the Odd Fellows hall on Oak Street will precede the 8 o'clock reception, and all Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and invited guests are invited to attend both affairs. Reservations to the dinner can be had by writing Robert E. Oliver, chairman, 13700 Saratoga Vista Avenue, Saratoga, or by phoning UN 7-3255.

Campbell Register

LeRoy Black and family spent the Labor Day holidays down South, taking in Disneyland, Hollywood, Long Beach, and visiting many relatives. There are two children—Deborah, one year old, and Richard Lee, age seven. Mr. Black is superintendent of streets in Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Anderson of South 4th street spent the Labor Day holidays in Ukiah, visiting their friends, the Herman Nelsons. Elmer, Junior, last year Campbell High graduate, also enjoyed this relaxation before starting to Junior College this month.

ANOTHER NEW FAMILY in Quito is that of Daniel Wendt, who purchased a home on Paseo Flores. The Wendts are from Custer, South Dakota, and Mrs. Wendt, a native of that town, says it's the place one of Custer's men found gold, before the outfit went into Montana for its last stand. Mr. Wendt works for IBM in San Jose, and there are two children, Diana, age three and Arla, one.

Miss Kathleen Bull, dean of girls at Campbell High School, spent a couple of weeks as Camp Director of a Girls Scout Camp in Mendocino County. There were 123 girls, all from Los Altos. During her absence, Miss Bull's mother, Mrs. Edith Bull, visited her son Kenneth, in Colorado.

WHALES WERE SPOUTING in the Pacific when Calvin Kester was down there recently hunting for albacore. He was a week too late for albacore fish which had been running heavily, but he and other forty people in the boat did get a thrill by seeing this huge whale spouting near-by for two days. Kester said the whale came a little too close to his boat for comfort. Folks down there said whales are only seen every two years or so. Mrs. Kester went along on this trip for the rest—which didn't include joining her husband in his fishing expeditions. The Kesters live on Barbano Lane, and have a married son, Richard, who lives in the Sherman Oaks district.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Morley, owners of the Friendly Shopping Center on Campbell Avenue, entertained guests from Glendale—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Osterman. Last month, the Lanes toured the northwest, visiting relatives in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho. While in Seattle, they took the trip by boat to British Columbia. The Lanes report the weather was "just grand" throughout the entire trip.

The hollyhock in the back yard of the Jack Silberbauer home on Rincon avenue has grown even taller than the 13 feet shown in a picture recently published in the Campbell Press, its stalk is as straight as a telephone pole.

Bill and Mary Leigh Murphy on Paseo Tierra and their five children have had a varied summer. Last week, Bill took oldest son Gary camping at Portola, and Gary previously spent a week with friends at Colusa. Oldest daughter Gail spent a week on the Russion River with neighbors, and little Joyce spent a week-end at Asilomar at the Unitarian Church Conference. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy had a week end by themselves in San Francisco, taking in shows and eating out.

Mrs. Clara Olson of McFarland Avenue in Quito celebrated her birthday at home with her daughters and grandchildren. Across the street from Mrs. Olson lives her daughter, Mrs. Vonnie Bivans and five year old son, David. Mrs. Olson has another daughter in Quito, on Paseo Cerro—Mrs. Floyd Schwab, who, together with daughter Melody, joined in congratulating grandmother on her birthday.

Back from a relaxing (?) fishing trip after driving 1700 miles over southeast Idaho and northwest Nevada looking for the best fishing streams are Charles Bradley, Ray Johnson, William Henley, and Dave Sanders. Bradley, who is business administrator of the Campbell Elementary School District, says they found fishing good everywhere they stopped and each caught the limit for trout, bringing home a total of 60 fine fish. By pre-arrangement the quartette met Bill Means in Nevada and all shared a campsite for several days before moving on their way.

Ray Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shaver Martin of 34 Jane Ann Way, has enrolled at the College of Eugene, in Oregon. Jay graduated from Campbell High in 1951 and since that time has served four years with the Air Force, 10 months of this time in Korea. He received his discharge in March.

District Superintendent William Henley bagged a four point deer, his first, while on a hunting trip north of Willets over the weekend. Others in the hunting party were son Jerry and Charles Schmale. While the men in her family were hunting, Mrs. Henley spent a few days vacationing in their trailer on the beach at Capitola.

Helmbold outlined plans for the "Open House" slated for Friday, September 23. A tour of the new school for the entire family has been scheduled with students and PTA members conducting the tour. Refrshments will be served.

Mrs. Albert Bariteau gave a budget report and Mrs. C. L. Christian told of plans for securing members for the new P. T. A.

Cashmere Sweaters, Elegant Yet Practical

BY EDNA MILES

THE cashmere sweater, like mink and diamonds, generally can be regarded as a luxury. And yet, like many fine things, it's a sound, long-range investment.

It wears beautifully, rarely goes out of style and always carries its own air of distinction. It is, then, well worth the money.

This season, cashmere sweaters by Hadley have been given beads or flowers for evening wear. Or, if you like, you can add your own trimming for a single wearing.

The new cashmeres have fine detailing which includes: little ribbed collars, crocheted edgings and turtle neck tops. Some have wide scoop necks for evening wear and some are in white, red, or soft blue. Others appear in the classic blacks, neutral beiges, and whites. The Hadley cashmeres are mothproofed in a process that makes them resist inroads of salt water or even perspiration.

In choosing your cashmere, pick one that best suits your way of life. If your choice happens to be the classic pullover or cardigan, you can change it by using bright accessories, scarves, gay flowers, or new costume jewelry

Velvet flowers with jeweled centers are appliqued on this pure white cashmere cardigan. Stems and leaves are embroidered. Little buds add a dainty note to the decoration which goes all around the sweater top. The cardigan is shown with a pullover, also in pure cashmere.

Footlighters Study Circle Theater

At their July meeting Footlighters learned more about still another facet of theatre work from Paul Beaudry of Actor's Repertory Company. He gave a brief history of "theatre in the round" style of presentation from its early beginning to the currently popular type. In this manner of production the audience is seated in a circle around the players thus giving a feeling of participation in the play, sometimes in fact as well as fancy. A question and answer period followed Mr. Beaudry's talk and Footlighters are most interested in pursuing the possibilities of producing this type of play in the near future.

At present, however, they will be concentrating all their effort on making "Sabrina Fair" an outstanding play for the enjoyment of the community.

Church Vacation School To Close

Plans are well under way for the annual church family picnic to be held September 25 at the De Laveaga Park in Santa Cruz. The Santa Cruz, Soquel and Skyland churches will join with the Campbell church in the outdoor worship service and picnic dinner.

Young Couple Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

In a mid-afternoon double ring ceremony performed by the Reverend Malcolm W. Gwalney at Calvary Presbyterian Church of San Jose September 4th, Charlene Joyce Nelson became the bride of Jerry Michael Long of Mill Valley.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lillian M. Nelson of 381 Casey Road and Mr. Horace Nelson of San Jose, and sister of Charles Nelson of Campbell. She is a graduate of Campbell schools and at present is in her senior year at San Jose State College where she is majoring in Education and is affiliated with Alpha Phi Sorority.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Long of Mill Valley and brother of Walter L. Long and Mrs. Edward J. Graham of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Wavel W. McLennan of Redwood City. He is a graduate of Mill Valley schools, attended Marin and San Jose State College and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. At the present time he is employed as sectional manager by Penny's.

For her wedding, Charlene selected a floor length gown styled with a fitted bodice of chantilly lace which featured long sleeves and a high neckline, and a lace paneled bouffant satin skirt which swept into a full train. Her illusion veil was caught to a satin and lace Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and orchids when escorted to the altar by her brother, Charles.

Maid of honor was Gloria Saia, who wore a ballerina-length yellow crystalette gown and carried a matching muff of crystalette and bronze chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids gowned identically in copper-tone crystalette were Pat O'Neil, Sandra Hawes, and Seana Finnell. Each carried matching muffs of crystalette and bronze chrysanthemums. Mary Van Meter was flower girl and wore floor-length yellow dotted swiss and carried a basket of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Nelson, mother of the bride, chose a gown of periwinkle blue with dusty pink accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Long wore a powder blue dress with blue accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Louis Long, father of the groom, performed the duties of best man and Walter Long, Frank Harvey, Phil Monteith and Bill Stivenson served as ushers.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on Casey Road for two hundred guests. After cutting their four tiered wedding cake, the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Carmel. For her going-away ensemble the bride donned a grey silk stantung suite with red accessories and pinned on an orchid corsage.

The California State Fair of 1861 included an exhibition of Angora goats, which had been introduced in 1848.

Campbell Register

It was quite a family gathering at the Southwood Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berggren when Nancy Lee celebrated her seventh birthday. In addition to older brother Lance Allan, there were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mauritz Berggren. Also present on this festive occasion, which was highlighted by a lovely cake, were Nancy's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Berggren and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Berggren. The mother of Mrs. Loren Berggren was also present, Mrs. M. Connolly, as were also her two grandchildren, David and Patty.

It was a wonderful tenth birthday for Louise Pechin, whose parents are the Edgar Pechins of McCoy Avenue. Instead of a party, she chose to go on a shopping spree to buy new fall clothes—whatever she chose, she could buy, then she lunched in a restaurant and saw a movie.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Christian of Eureka and their three children were Labor weekend visitors of Mrs. George A. Foster of Camden Ave., the mother of Mrs. Christion. Oldest son, David Christian, lives with his grandmother and is a sophomore at Camden High. The other three children are Valerie, John and Astrid—called Princess by her family.

The J. B. Kershaw family of Apricot Avenue had a wonderful trip this summer. They toured the Banff and Lake Louise area, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. Kershaw was particularly enthusiastic about Idaho, although throughout the entire trip, the weather was not as good as that which they left in California. Daughter Barbara, 20 years old, attends San Jose State. Mr. Kershaw teaches painting and decorating at Technical High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson and son Glen returned Sunday from a vacation in the southland which took them to Ensanada, Mexico. They window-shopped in San Diego, saw Disneyland, dined at Knott's Berry Farm, basked on the beach at Santa Barbara, fished in streams near Morro Bay and got home ahead of the heat wave but just in time for the Sunday evening earthquake which they say caused a TV pole seen from their patio to sway back and forth like the pendulum on a clock.

The Rotary Club of Campbell, on Monday, September 12th, will be host to E. W. (Wick) Stephens, Governor of the 155th District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the fifty Rotary Clubs in Northern California. He will address the Club and confer with President Cel Gerevas, Secretary Forrest Reese, and Committee Chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

During the Fair, this group will give a demonstration of various stages of obedience training at the Swine Barn, Sept. 18, from two to three p. m. according to Karl H. Goebel, publicity chairman of the group.

Everyone is invited to bring dogs to this training course, the purpose of which is to make "good citizens out of dogs." Lyle Gillette of Saratoga is president of the club, and is himself well-known as a dog fancier.

INK STAINS

By HELEN McLEOD

THE TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Duer, 18725 Martha Ave., was the occasion of a pleasant surprise. Daughter Linda ordered a lovely cake from a Quito Bakery, and son Burt, Jr. called, long distance from the Naval Air Station at which he is receiving training. Papa Duer received another surprise when he found the phone call was collect and the cake he paid for himself—but the Duers were a very happy family, withal, on this occasion. Linda works at Quito TV Store. I could see that my playing a number of long-hair records was a torture to her, and as I left, I almost said: "Now you can put on some be-bop to cleanse out your hearing organs." When I told Linda afterwards of my thought, she said, "And I did as soon as you left the store." Mr. Duer works at Keasbey and Mattison, makers of fibre glass products.

ANOTHER CAMPBELL HIGH STUDENT, and Quito resident, who will marry soon is Vonda Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardys Perry of Afton Ave. The bridegroom-to-be is Dave Tanksley of Campbell, employed at Southern Pacific Railways. Vonda, a sophomore at the high school, expects to be married this week and promised to tell me more of the details later.

MR. AND MRS. R. D. WHITE OF MARTHA AVENUE have returned from a trip to Grants Pass and points north.. LES DAVIS DIDN'T go down there to where things are big this year on his vacation. The tall Ex-Texan from Quito Food Center went touring the Pacific Northwest and British Columbia. During his absence, co-owner Joe Rositano's handsome face graced the local foodery, while the Food Basket in Willow Glen, the boys' other venture, got along under its own power for awhile. WHILE SPEAKING OF WILLOW GLEN, must say that Neil Zallie, Quito resident, reports he is still doing business on Lincoln Glen, trimming people under the names of Neil and Joe—barbers. Wife Genevieve is working at Eugene's Department Store. Quito people are happy to see Helen Youngman recovered and back at Eugene's.

PAT RAYMOND, PAT BERG, and NORMA BORG, mothers all, swim every week at Campbell Pool.

A MATINEE WITH CAKE AND ICE CREAM afterwards were the features of Charlcie Swartz' twelfth birthday party. Eleven of her classmates participated in this event: Nancy Prinz, Kathleen Day, Leigh Bergen, Mary Ellen Hoover, Cheryl Rich, Janet de Lawrence, Jean Murphy, Carol Raynor, Diane Anderson, Susan Snook and Sharon McBrayer. Charlcie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swartz of Cox Avenue in Quito. Mrs. Swartz, who was formerly chairman of Girl Scout Greenbough district, told me that while living in Mt. View, she had an experience similar to that about which I wrote last week. A perfectly strange man called her and asked her for a news item, which alarmed her somewhat. Later, she learned he was perfectly legitimate, and in fact, quite well known.

CAMPBELL OLD TIMER HARVEY CHANDLER is getting along nicely in a local rest home, I discovered through a visit to him last week. I was trying to find out more about this area's settlers who were reportedly with the alternate Donner Pass party—the group which came through unharmed. Mr. Chandler had never heard about this, but I found his mind very alert in remembering many old events and San Tomas area history.

DEPARTMENT OF SMALL APOLOGIES: I found out last week another thing about composing rooms. Robots do not read proofs. Cliff Cassiday is too much of a gentleman to say "I told you so" when a dozen errors were found in a galley proof sheet I had freshly proof read.

DURING THE HEAT WAVE LAST WEEK, Ronnie Hawley, Campbell Press carrier, was picking prunes way up in the hills with a group of other boys. Two little kittens, eyes barely open, came meow-ing up to them. There was no home nearby, so the boys assumed some kindly person, not wishing to kill the litter, had taken the kittens up there for themselves. Ronnie took the kittens home, and his parents, the Norman Hawleys of Paseo Pueblo, owners of Quito Variety, are permitting him to keep one. Ronnies phone number is FR 8-8535, if any reader wants the other one, a male—(also the El Quito Park area number to call if one wishes to subscribe from that subdivision.) JOHN GROSSHANS is the Campbell Press carrier who delivers in the Workmon area of Quito—those streets with the Irish, English and Scotch names. John's number is FR 8-7146. He doesn't have cats, but you can call him to place a subscription. His mother is Mrs. E. C. Domboski of Paseo Presado, and his little sister, Frances, is the girl whose picture appeared in the Press a while back for placing in a beauty-popularity-talent contest.

WHILE STILL ON THE SUBJECT OF NEWSBOYS, Campbell Shopper is delivered in the entire Quito tract by Mike Jameson, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Jameson of Cox Avenue. Big brother Neil is gas attendant at Quito Richfield. STILL ON THE SUBJECT OF NEWSPAPERS,—since the first issue of the weekly Saratoga News mentioned my name, I herewith return the compliment. Can't agree with publisher Sherman Miller's appraisal of all the movies shown at the local theater. I saw "Not as a Stranger" because I had to see Olivia de Haviland mis-cast as a somewhat repulsive Scandinavian. She was lovely as usual—despite the script—and about the rest of the picture, I have this to say: I was about to bite into a candy bar when the operating scenes at the end of the pictiure came on. I staggered out of the theater and returned home with a gob of chocolate still clutched in my hand.

MRS. BRUCE HOLMES REPORTS ON DISNEYLAND—The Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea submarine exhibit very worth while; too many rides unless you bring a loaded pocket book. The Holmes live on Cox Avenue and have two sons. Mrs. Holmes helps to compile the interesting and lively Westhope United Presbyterian Church monthly bulletin.

THE FOLLOWING AD appeared in the classified section of a County daily, under the head of situation wanted: "Experienced woman desires housework and man, gardening."

GEORGE BALLANTYNE at Stevens Music Company in Los Gatos was talking to Tom Stevens at his Willow Glen store. A lady was in the store seeking to rent a cello for her daughter. George says: "The lady's here right now . . . Yes, she's pretty large . . ." A look of horror comes over the face of the clerk, who didn't know George was referring to the lady's daughter—whether the child was large enough to take a 3/4 or full size instrument.

"BIG MIKE" AT FAIR

A 2200 lb. Herford steer named "Big Mike" will be the feature attraction for kids and parents at the Eleventh Annual Santa Clara County Fair, September 12 through 18.

Mike is a regular walking meat-counter showcase. Diagrammed in chalk in different cuts of meat, he will be on display in the Livestock Division.

Eight years ago, Mike, being a little bit bigger and hungrier than the other range cattle, strayed away from the wild steers. Pleased to find such an unusually tame and big yearling, V. B. Minnis of Downing Road, Milpitas, brought Mike off the range and gave the whitefaced steer to his wife for a pet.

During the winter month Mike stays around the back yard, but in the summer season he's back out on the range.

MYERS YEARBOOKS, INC., 2553 Middlefield Road, Redwood City, printers and publishers of college and high school yearbooks has leased 15,000 square feet on 225 Post Street, San Jose and plans to occupy the building about September 1. Verne Barr, Plant Manager, at Redwood City where the company is presently located, said employment will approximate 75 people and only a few key people will transfer here from Redwood City. Capital investment for equipment, inventory, etc., approximates $100,000. Firm serves the six Western States, Hawaii and Alaska. Headquarters of the company is Topeka, Kansas.

TOM DOYLE COMPANY, Sunta Teresa Street, San Jose, will erect a building to expand its appliance wholesale and distribution business at 199 Bassett Street, San San Jose, at an estmated cost of $44,000. Contractor is Bridges Construction Company.

NEW BUSINESS COURSE—Stenotype teacher Ernest Pope examines machine shorthand notes of adult student Barbara Hartman. Campbell Classes for adults begins course September 26.

Cinderella Doll Hospital Unique

The Cinderella Doll hospital, operated at 495 South Genevieve avenue, San Jose, is an amazing place to visit. Mrs. Maraget Van Riper is to be seen there repairing dolls of any type, nationality, size and category. She usually makes the part needed as skillfully and perfectly as if direct from the factory. Wigs, parts, costumes by the hundreds are to be seen in her unique shop.

People often bring broken dolls that were made 80 to 100 years ago for restoration, repair, replacement of missing hands, arms, legs or even heads. She can make a porcelain head from her own ceramic kiln. Parts for the popular Toni, Saucy Walkers, Sweet Sue, Coo-Baby and other well known dolls are on hand.

Because parts for antique dolls are scarce, none having been manufactured since 1918, the Doll Hospital has one of the largest known supplies having bought them from the widow of the representative of a German doll manufacturer. Cinderella Doll Hospital buys parts of older dolls.

The collection of dolls is now said to be thethird most popular hobby in the United States. Orders come in from all parts of the world.

Mrs. Marion Byrd of 1505 Washington Avenue in Willow Glen is dolly's dressmaker, after receiving full hospital treatment. Recently a doll was sent from Europe to be freshened and clothed by these two experts.

Adult School Here Offers Stenotypy

For the first time in Santa Clara County, instruction in machine shorthand for adults will begin Monday, September 26, at Campbell High School.

The stenotype is a shorthand typewriter using basic English letters only and weighs about 4 pounds. The 22 keys can be struck simultaneously, writing words and phrases with each stroke, according to Ernest H. Pope, Campbell High School teacher who will instruct the evening students.

Used extensively by court reporters and secretaries doing considerable dictation work, stenotype instruction was obtainable only by private means until recently.

Besides speed and accuracy, the comparatively short time required to reach above-average skills is another advantage of this machine technique.

The new machine shorthand class will meet in room 6 at the Campbell High School Monday and Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m. beginning September 26. Registration for this course, as well as for other courses of the Campbell Classes for Adults will be from 8:00 to 9:00 p. m. September 21 at the Administration Building, 101 North Winchester, Campbell. For further information, call the Campbell Classes for Adults Office, FRanklin 8-0079.

There are rules of bicycle safety, and a period inspection is a must according to Carol Lane, noted travel authority. Motorist should exercise caution when sharing the road with children. House Trailers Are Subject To Stronger Laws

Owners and operators of house trailers in California are effected by a new and stronger law enacted by the 1955 Legislature, effective today.

Paul Mason, State Director of Motor Vehicles, in Sacramento today advised all trailer coach owners to check the status of their trailer registrations within the next 30 days. If the registration and license fees are due, they automatically become delinquent today under terms of the new law, and will become subject to penalties on Friday, October 7, 1955.

"The trailer coach registration requirements were strengthened and made more inclusive by the new law," Mason said.. "The major effect of the legislation is to provide that any trailer coach within this State shall be subject to annual registration and licensing whether it is operated or not.

"Many trailer coach users who have been living in the vehicles as house trailers, or who have been moving them only occasionally, have not been much concerned about the State's registration requirements. Under the new law, they will be required to apply immediately for registration."

The motor vehicle director said the State fees include the flat $8.00 annual registration fee required for all motor vehicles, and a license fee of 2 per cent of the valuation determined by the Department of Motor Vehicles as specified in law. Penalties imposed 30 days after the fees are delinquent amount to 100 per cent of the registration fee and 50 per cent of the license fee.

Sunol Students May Now Attend San Jose School

Roy Simpson, state superintendent of schools has approved an agreement between Sunol Elementary School District and the San Jose Unified School district for pupils from Sunol to attend San Jose schools.

Miles D. Harrington, Sunol principal, conferred with State Department of Education officials Tuesday in Sacramento on the problem created by closing of the condemned Sunol school building.

The interdistrict agreement provides that Sunol shall pay San Jose schools for the net cost of educating Sunol's approximately 200 youngsters. This plan for school attendance for Sunol pupils was adopted after Sunol voters rejected in an election last month a proposal for annexing Sunol to the San Jose district.

Harrington said recently another election may be called so that Sunol district may join Campbell High School District.
